Will You Love Me, Tomorrow?
Genesis 2:18-25

Invitation #277 – Take My Life, and Let it be Consecrated

Postlude – Roy Hicks

“Will you still love me
TOMORROW”

Genesis 2:18-25

Introduction – there are three questions we must ask as we answer the question of will you love me tomorrow:

Will you be a h_____ (2:18-20)

<sup>18</sup>The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him <sup>19</sup>Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds in the sky and all the wild animals. But for Adam no suitable helper was found.

Will you l_____ and c_____ to become o_____ (2:24).

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Will you live before God and your partner without s_____ (2:25).

<sup>25</sup> Adam and his wife were both naked and they felt no shame.

Conclusion - Will you love, me, tomorrow? I don't think that's a question we can afford to take lightly, and we can't put off answering it until another day. What's your answer, before God, this day?
