Lessons From A Little Boy's Lunchbox John 6:1-13

Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias),² and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the signs he had performed by healing the sick.³ Then Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples.⁴ The Jewish Passover Festival was near.

⁵When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?"⁶ He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.⁷ Philip answered him, "It would take more than half a year's wages^[a] to buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!"⁸ Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up,⁹ "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"¹⁰ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down (about five thousand men were there).¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

¹²When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted."¹³ So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

Introduction – the lesson from this little boy's lunchbox is so profound and it can have an impact in our churches if we will but follow his example.

Lesson #1 - He was willing to g_____ (6:9a) Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish

Lesson #2 - He was willing to give in spite of c_____ (6:9b) but how far will they go among so many?

He was willing to give with n_____ s_____ a_____ (6:11).

¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

Conclusion – would you follow the example of this little boy this morning?

West Davidson Food Pantry/Clothes Closet Weekend Feeding Program

– many of the children in our community come from homes whose parents are facing financial hardship due to the loss of jobs, change of income and disabilities. When this occurs, there is not enough money to provide for each family member’s food needs. You can sponsor a child and ensure that child will receive meals every weekend of the school year. Our goal this year is to send home 9,000 weekend food bags which will allow us to serve up to 75 students per elementary school. See Ann Burns for details.

Right Now Media – don’t forget to provide your email address so that you can have access to this great website that features Christian based programming for all ages. We hope to launch around the first of September.
