Matthew 1:24-25; 2:11
Luke 1:38; 2:17-20

Introduction – most, if not all of us, have some Christmas memories. Some of them we enjoy remembering others not so much. It occurs to me as we look at the Christmas story there are some memories we need to recall this morning:

The Memory of O _____ (Matthew 1:24-25; Luke 1:38)

Matthew 1:24 ²⁴When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. ²⁵But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.

Luke 1:38 ³⁸"I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled."

The Memory of T _____ (Luke 2:17-20)

¹⁷When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

A Memory of G _____ (Matthew 2:11)

¹¹On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Conclusion – what will you give to Jesus this Christmas?
