Prelude - Roy Hicks

Chiming of the Hour

Welcome/The Work of the Church Dr. Huckaby

Responsive Reading

Pastor: O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory in the heavens.

Congregation: ²Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

Pastor: ³When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

Congregation: ⁴what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them?

Pastor: ⁵You have made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them^[1] with glory and honor.

Congregation: ⁶You made them rulers over the works of your hands you put everything under their feet:

Pastor: ⁷all flocks and herds, and the animals of the wild, ⁸the birds in the sky, and the fish in the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas.

Congregation: ⁹LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth

Sermon Series in James
Joyful Trials
James 1:2-4

Introduction – in many ways the little letter of James is the most practical book in the New Testament. In our text this morning James gives us practical advice on how to handle tough days.

C_____ (1:2)

Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds”

R_____ (1:3)

Because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance”

P_____ (1:4)

Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything

Conclusion - God does not intend to destroy us by the trials he allows to come our way. Those things that seem so painful now will one day be clearly seen as benefits to our spiritual growth. They are not meant to defeat us but to be the means to a greater spiritual victory. Therefore, we should never complain when hard times come. We should rejoice. And we will rejoice if we believe what God has said. Every hard trial is another step on the stairway that leads from earth to heaven.
