“FRIEND DAY” GOSPEL CONCERT – SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10 (11 AM)

We will have a professional touring Gospel music group, “Mercy’s Well” who will lead our service in concert. Their testimonies and presenting of the Gospel is an outstanding opportunity for our “unchurched friends” to come under the power of God’s Holy Spirit. Start praying that through their message they may reach some “unsaved souls” and bring them to know Christ.

FLAG RETIREMENT – VETERAN RECOGNITION – MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11 (6 PM)

This stirring and solemn event will be held at the Tony Barbee Scout Center. Scouts will demonstrate the proper way to cut and retire old, tattered and worn US flags. All military, retired or active, are encouraged to attend and be recognized. Everyone will have an opportunity to call the name and service of family or friend currently serving or the name of someone who has gone before us. A very solemn and special service prepared and presented by the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts. Please join us. Bring a chair.
